

Volunteer Program

Description

Known as the little Costa Rican Amazon due to its biodiversity (2% of the world's biodiversity), Corcovado is a must visit place. It was created on the 25 of October 1975. You can find really diverse fauna (scarlet macaws, crocodiles, monkeys, wild pigs and if you are lucky you may see a jaguar) and flora (orchids, tropical cedars, among others). It has four Park Ranger Stations La Leona, Los Patos, Sirena y San Pedrillo and each of the stations has a unique beauty. You will be assigned according to the necessities of the park administration.

Location

This tropical jewel is located in the Osa Peninsula in the Province of Puntarenas and it is part of the Osa Conservation Area.

How to get there

Public transportation in Costa Rica is quite inexpensive and you can get almost everywhere by bus. When you are sure where you are going we will give you the bus schedule and the final tips to get to your host park

General Tasks

The most important requirements for this volunteer program are:

Hard working skills, ecologically sensitive, willing to learn about new cultures and the most important one: enthusiasm.

In most of the projects there will be a volunteer coordinator in charge to assign the jobs but you are welcome to help anytime you consider is needed. We appreciate creativity.

Environmental volunteer programs with social commitment in Costa Rica

- Maintenance and construction of the Trails
- General infrastructure maintenance
- Tourist attention
- Control Walks

Accommodation

You will find basic facilities, no electrical power, but you will get a bed to sleep in at the Ranger´s.

Food

It will be provided at the National park. The food is Costa Rican typical food so you will be eating a lot of rice and beans and they are mainly served with some type of meat and sometimes you can enjoy tropical fruits. If you are vegetarian or have any special dietary restrictions let us know. In most of the cases there is a cook in charge of the meal preparation but if not you may have the chance to learn how to prepare Costa Rican food.
